

Secure access to your health history helps emergency staff to make better informed decisions

Our hospital is connected to CareSync Exchange, a secure way of sharing health information electronically between public health services across Victoria.

This system helps doctors, nurses, and other healthcare professionals quickly access important information about your visits to other public healthcare services.

For more information, please ask your treating team.

Visit our website
health.vic.gov.au/caresync-exchange

Secure access to your health history helps your health care team to make better informed decisions

Our hospital is connected to CareSync Exchange, a secure way of sharing health information electronically between public health services across Victoria.

This system helps doctors, nurses, and other healthcare professionals quickly access important information about your visits to other public healthcare services.

For more information, please ask your treating team.

Visit our website
health.vic.gov.au/caresync-exchange

Families can have peace of mind knowing that doctors can quickly access their loved one's health history in critical moments

Our hospital is connected to CareSync Exchange, a secure way of sharing health information electronically between public health services across Victoria.

This system helps doctors, nurses, and other healthcare professionals quickly access important information about your visits to other public healthcare services.

For more information, please ask your treating team.

Visit our website
health.vic.gov.au/caresync-exchange

